Use this guide as a reference to select your investment(s) on Putnam forms and applications. If you have any questions or if you want to receive a copy of a fund prospectus, which contains information about fees, expenses, and risks, please contact your financial advisor or call a Putnam customer service representative at 1-800-225-1581. Please read the prospectus carefully before you invest or send money.

Investment offerings will periodically change. Please view a current fund guide at <https://www.putnam.com/individual/forms/>

If you are transferring shares held in The Putnam funds to a new ownership registration with Putnam, you must select the same share class as the original account.

For new investments, if no share class is indicated, Class A shares will be purchased.

Important: Money market funds are not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or any other governmental agency. Although the fund seeks to maintain a constant share price of $1.00, it is possible to lose money by investing in this fund. Money market Class B share accounts are not available for direct purchases. Pursuant to Rule 2a-7 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Money Market Fund is limited to beneficial owners that are natural persons only; institutional accounts are not allowed.

Class A, C, and M shares are available only on terms set forth in the prospectus under How do I buy fund shares. Check with your financial advisor on the availability of other share classes.

Any unallocated investments will be placed into Class A shares of the Putnam money market fund that corresponds with your status as an institutional or retail investor.

Class A, C, and M shares are available only on terms set forth in the prospectus under How do I buy shares. Check with your financial advisor on the availability of other share classes.

Fee Structures A, B, and C shares are available only under the terms set forth in the Putnam 529 for America College Savings Program Offering Statement sections "Fees and Expenses" and "Breakpoints".

Accounts established for beneficiaries 15 years of age or older are not eligible for fee structure B.
