

James A. Fetch

Head of Portfolio Construction Investment Management

Mr. Fetch is Head of Portfolio Construction on the Global Asset Allocation (GAA) team. He is responsible for portfolio construction and risk management of GAA portfolios. In addition, Mr. Fetch is a portfolio manager of Putnam's target-date, traditional asset allocation, multi-asset absolute return, and total return strategies. His work also contributes to Putnam's Capital Markets Outlook. He is a member of Putnam's Diversity Advisory Council. Mr. Fetch has been in the investment industry since he joined Putnam in 1994. After leaving in 1998 to complete his M.B.A., Mr. Fetch rejoined the firm in 2000.

Previously at Putnam, Mr. Fetch served in various investment roles within GAA, including as Co-Head of GAA.

Mr. Fetch earned an M.B.A. from the Booth School of Business at the University of Chicago and a B.S. from the University of Notre Dame.