

Michael V. Salm

*Co-Head of Fixed Income
Putnam Investments*

Mr. Salm is a Co-Head of Fixed Income. He manages the investment strategies related to mortgage and securitized products, interest-rate and volatility derivatives, and money markets. Mr. Salm is a portfolio manager of Putnam's core global, core plus, global government, fixed income global alpha, and dedicated mortgage strategies, and 37 Capital's Securitized Fixed Income strategy. In addition, he oversees Putnam's trading operations and fixed income quantitative teams. Mr. Salm joined Putnam in 1997 and has been in the investment industry since 1989.

Previously at Putnam, he served as a Portfolio Manager responsible for mortgage strategies in fixed income portfolios. Prior to joining Putnam, Mr. Salm was a Mortgage Specialist at BlackRock Financial Management from 1996 to 1997, a Vice President and Trader at Nomura Securities from 1994 to 1996, a Vice President and Structurer at Nikko Securities from 1993 to 1994, and an Analyst at Fitch Investor Services from 1991 to 1992.

Mr. Salm earned a B.S. from Cornell University.