

Robert J. Schoen

Chief Investment Officer, Global Asset Allocation Investment Management

Mr. Schoen is Chief Investment Officer, Global Asset Allocation. He is responsible for the overall strategy and positioning of Putnam's global asset allocation (GAA) products. His responsibilities include the research that drives equity security selection strategies, portfolio construction, and risk management for GAA portfolios. His work contributes to Putnam's Capital Markets Outlook. In addition, Mr. Schoen is a portfolio manager of Putnam's GAA, multi-asset absolute return, total return, and low-volatility equity strategies. He is also a member of Putnam's Operating Committee. Mr. Schoen joined Putnam in 1997 and has been in the investment industry since 1990.

Previously at Putnam, Mr. Schoen served as a Co-Head of GAA, Head of the Quantitative Models group, and as an Analyst for GAA. Prior to joining Putnam, Mr. Schoen was an Independent Financial Consultant at Schoen Timing Strategies from 1992 to 1997 and Head of Research at Signalert Corporation from 1990 to 1992.

Mr. Schoen earned an M.B.A. from the Stern School of Business at New York University and a B.A. from Tufts University.
