

D. William Kohli

Co-Head of Fixed Income Investment Management

Mr. Kohli is a Co-Head of Fixed Income, specializing in Portfolio Construction. In this role, he draws on the security-specific expertise of the sector specialists teams within the Core Fixed Income group to build optimal institutional portfolios, specializing in global and non-U.S. multi-sector mandates. Mr. Kohli is a portfolio manager for the global alpha strategies with varying targets, as well as for Putnam's global fixed income mutual funds and emerging-market sovereign debt strategies. He joined Putnam in 1994 and has been in the investment industry since 1988.

Previously at Putnam, Mr. Kohli served as a Portfolio Manager responsible for Putnam's global fixed income mutual funds as well as several institutional strategies. Prior to joining Putnam, Mr. Kohli held several positions from 1987 to 1994 at Franklin Templeton Investments; he was a Co-Director of Global Bonds from 1993 to 1994, and an Executive Vice President, Senior Portfolio Manager, and Portfolio Manager from 1988 to 1993. From 1983 to 1986, he was a Scientific Programmer of Forecasting Applications for Sperry/Unisys.

Mr. Kohli earned an M.B.A. from the Haas Business School, University of California at Berkeley and a B.A. from the University of California, San Diego.
