

Matthew M. Culley

*Analyst
Equity Research*

Mr. Culley is an Analyst in the Equity Research group, focusing on the non-U.S. consumer staples sector. He is responsible for conducting fundamental analysis and valuation of companies in the beverage, tobacco, automotive, and automotive supply industries within developed markets, and making buy/sell recommendations. Mr. Culley has been in the investment industry since he joined Putnam in 2008.

Previously at Putnam, he served as an Equity Associate and was an Investment Associate, focused on U.S. mid-cap technology stocks.

Mr. Culley earned a B.S. in Finance and Economics from Boston College.